Second Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 5:12-16

The people held the apostles in great esteem and brought sick people to them to be healed. Although some were afraid to be known, the number of Jesus' followers continued to grow steadily.

Second Reading: Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19

John depicts a vision of lamp-stands of gold and one like the Son of Man in a robe with a sash of gold. This apparition told John he had nothing to fear and then described himself as one who was dead but now lived again. He then instructed John to record any other visions he might have.

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Jesus appeared to the disciples and breathed on them saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit." He gives them the power to forgive people's sins or hold them accountable. Thomas, who was not present, refused to believe Jesus had appeared until he came to them once more. Jesus told Thomas to believe and added, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Polskie Duszpasterstwo w Parafii św. Bernarda i św. Stanisława Kostki

Kazanie świętego Anastazego Antiocheńskiego

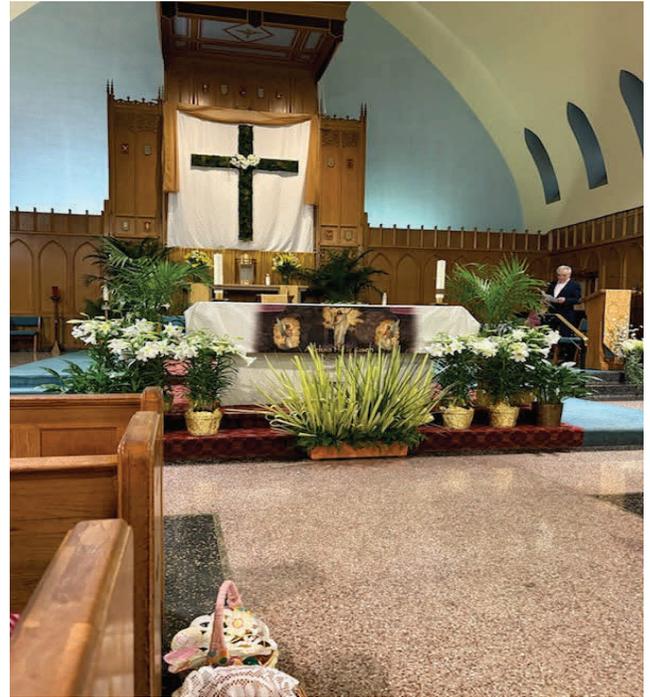

Gdy Chrystus już ukazał swoimi słowami i czynami, że jest prawdziwie Bogiem i Panem wszechrzeczy, powiedział do swych uczniów tuż przed udaniem się do Jerozolimy: "Oto. idziemy do Jerozolimy; tam Syn Człowieczy zostanie wydany arcykapłanom i uczonym w Piśmie. Oni wydadzą Go poganom na wyszydzenie, ubiczowanie i ukrzyżowanie". Wszystko to powiedział Jezus zgodnie z przepowiednią proroków o Jego odejściu, którego miał dokonać w Jerozolimie. Tak więc Pismo święte od początku zapowiadało śmierć Chrystusa i Jego mękę oraz to wszystko, co się stało z Jego ciałem po śmierci. Ale Pismo ukazuje Go także jako Boga, nieśmiertelnego i nie podlegającego cierpieniu. Owa rzeczywistość Wcielenia pozwala nam słusznie i prawdziwie wyznawać zarówno mękę Pana jak i Jego niecierpielność i widzieć w Nim Boga-Człowieka. Tajemnica Wcielenia pozwala nam również zrozumieć i to, że Syn Boży mógł doznać męki krzyżowej, aby w ten sposób zbawić człowieka. Tę tajemnicę zna tylko Chrystus i ci, którym On ją odkrył, albowiem wszystko przekazał Mu Ojciec, tak jak i Duch przenika najgłębsze tajemnice.

Tak więc trzeba było, aby Chrystus cierpiał, i nie mogło stać się inaczej, jak On sam zresztą powiedział o tym uczniom, wyrzucając im brak zrozumienia i ociąganie się: nie chcieli uwierzyć, że trzeba, by Chrystus cierpiał i wszedł do swej chwały. Wszedł On przeto od Ojca i przyszedł na świat dla zbawienia swojego ludu, ogałając się z tej chwały, którą miał u Ojca, zanim świat powstał. Zbawienie zaś było dokonaniem wszystkiego i trzeba było, aby przyszło przez mękę Tego, który jest dawcą naszego życia, jak uczy Paweł: "On jest twórcą życia, udoskonalonym przez cierpienia".

A chwała, której Jednorodzony przez krótki czas wyrzekł się dla nas, została Mu przywrócona przez krzyż i zajaśniała w Jego uwielbionym ciele. Mówi Jan w swojej Ewangelii wyjaśniając, czym była owa woda, o której powiedział Zbawiciel, że "płynnie jak strumień z wnętrza człowieka wierzącego. A powiedział to o Duchu, którego mieli otrzymać wierzący w Niego. Duch bowiem jeszcze nie był dany, ponieważ Jezus nie został jeszcze uwielbiony" - chwałą nazywa śmierć na krzyżu. Dlatego Pan prosił przed męką swego Ojca, aby Go uwielbił tą chwałą, którą posiadał razem z Nim przed założeniem świata.

The Saint of the Week

April 28

St. Peter Chanel, Priest and Martyr (Feast day - April 28) The protomartyr of the South Seas, St. Peter Chanel was born in 1803 at Clet in the diocese of Belley, France. His intelligence and simple piety brought him to the attention of the local priest, Father Trompier, who saw to his elementary education. Entering the diocesan Seminary, Peter won the affection and the esteem of both students and professors. After his ordination he found himself in a rundown country parish and completely revitalized it in the three-year span that he remained there. However, his mind was set on missionary work; so, in 1831, he joined the newly formed Society of Mary (Marists) which concentrated on missionary work at home and abroad. To his dismay, he was appointed to teach at the seminary at Belley and remained there for the next five years, diligently performing his duties.

In 1836, the Society was given the New Hebrides in the Pacific as a field for evangelization, and the jubilant St. Peter was appointed Superior of a little band of missionaries sent to proclaim the Faith to its inhabitants. On reaching their destination after an arduous ten-month journey, the band split up and St. Peter went to the Island of Futuna accompanied by a lay brother and an English layman, Thomas Boog. They were at first well received by the pagans and their King Niuliki who had only recently forbidden cannibalism. However, the King's jealousy and fear were aroused when the missionaries learned the language and gained the people's confidence; he realized the adoption of the Christian Faith would lead to the abolition of some of the prerogatives he enjoyed as both high priest and sovereign.

Finally, when his own son expressed a desire to be baptized, the king's hatred erupted and he dispatched a group of his warriors to set upon the saintly head of the missionaries. Thus, on April 28, 1841, three years after his arrival, St. Peter was seized and clubbed to death by those he had come to save. And his death brought his work to completion - within five months the entire island was converted to Christianity.

Saint Peter Chanel is the Patron Saint of Oceania.

STEWARDSHIP
Sunday of Divine Mercy

“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (JOHN 20:21) Cardinal Joseph Tobin, C.SsR. –

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our “enemies.” Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available on a regular basis on Saturdays at 4:15PM and on Sunday mornings after Masses as well as after weekday Masses simply by requesting a celebration of the Sacrament.

This Sunday – confessions at 2:30PM in the church

From Fr. Marcin's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last Sunday, in the Gospel reading St. Peter went to witness the empty tomb. Last Monday, Pope Francis, the Peter of our times went to the house of our Father. As a Church, with profound sorrow and heartfelt gratitude, we mourn the death of our beloved Holy Father, a shepherd who walked closely with God's people and never tired of reminding us of God's mercy.

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, as we continue to proclaim that Christ is risen and death is not the end, we entrust Pope Francis to the Risen Lord whom he followed so faithfully. Risen Jesus Christ is the supreme manifestation and performance of Divine Mercy. "God so loved the world that he gave His Only Begotten Son" (Jn 3:16) and sent Him to death so that we might be saved. I like very much a phrase from the Easter proclamation that we sing at the Easter Vigil that expresses so well the mercy of God when He says: "To redeem the slave he has sacrificed the Son," so God loves us with mercy.

On this Sunday we began a new chapter of St. Bernard and St. Stanislaus Parish as we are beginning a Spanish Mass at 1:30pm. We are very excited for this opportunity to reach the new peripheries with the paschal announcement that Christ is Risen!

Today, we will have a gathering in the school cafeteria after the 10:30 AM Mass for our Swieconka. After the Spanish Mass at 3PM we will have an opportunity to confess and to pray the Divine Chaplet and to receive a Plenary Indulgence. This is granted under the usual conditions: sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Pope and in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin. Thesetake part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy.

Finally, I want to say thank you for your generous donations, and for the many volunteers who decorated our church, served at the liturgies of Holy Triduum and Easter:, our choir and cantors, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers. May the Peace of the Risen Lord be with you and your families!

Christ is Risen!!! Alleluia!
